Urban forests as nature based solutions - the evolution of ideas

1. Urban forests have ever been a critical provider of manifold ecosystem services to urban societies
2. There are distinct urban forest governancen, management and conservation strategies for urban forests that are at the interface of a changing ecosystem and evolving societal demands
3. Increasing our understanding of different management approaches across countries and continents is imperative to facilitate mutual learning and better urban forestry strategies in the future

Urban Forests as nature-based solutions – concept

- Nature-based solutions: “solutions that are inspired and supported by nature, which are cost-effective, simultaneously provide environmental, social and economic benefits and help build resilience.”

Urban forests and forestry are a perfect example for such a “solution” with big potential...

→ Starting point for the “Clearing House” EU-China project!

Clearing House Objectives

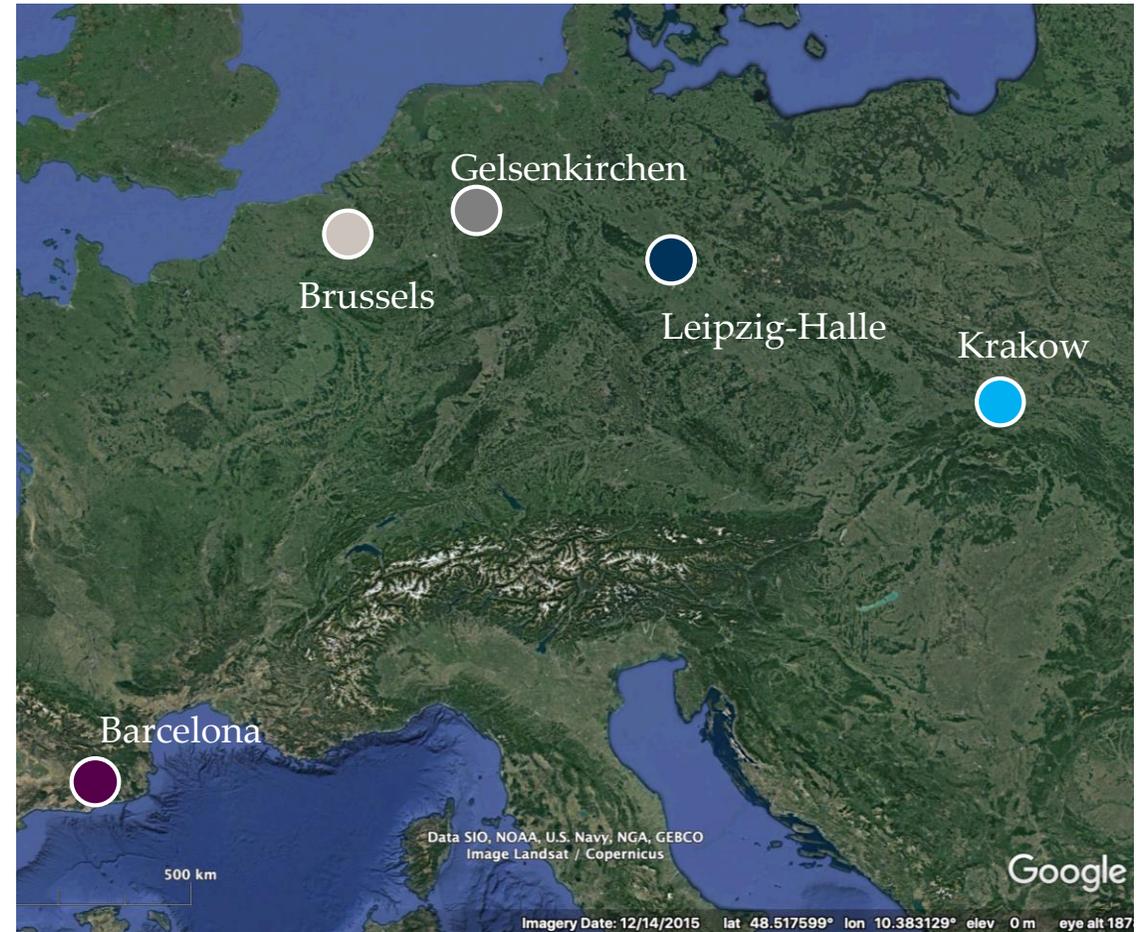

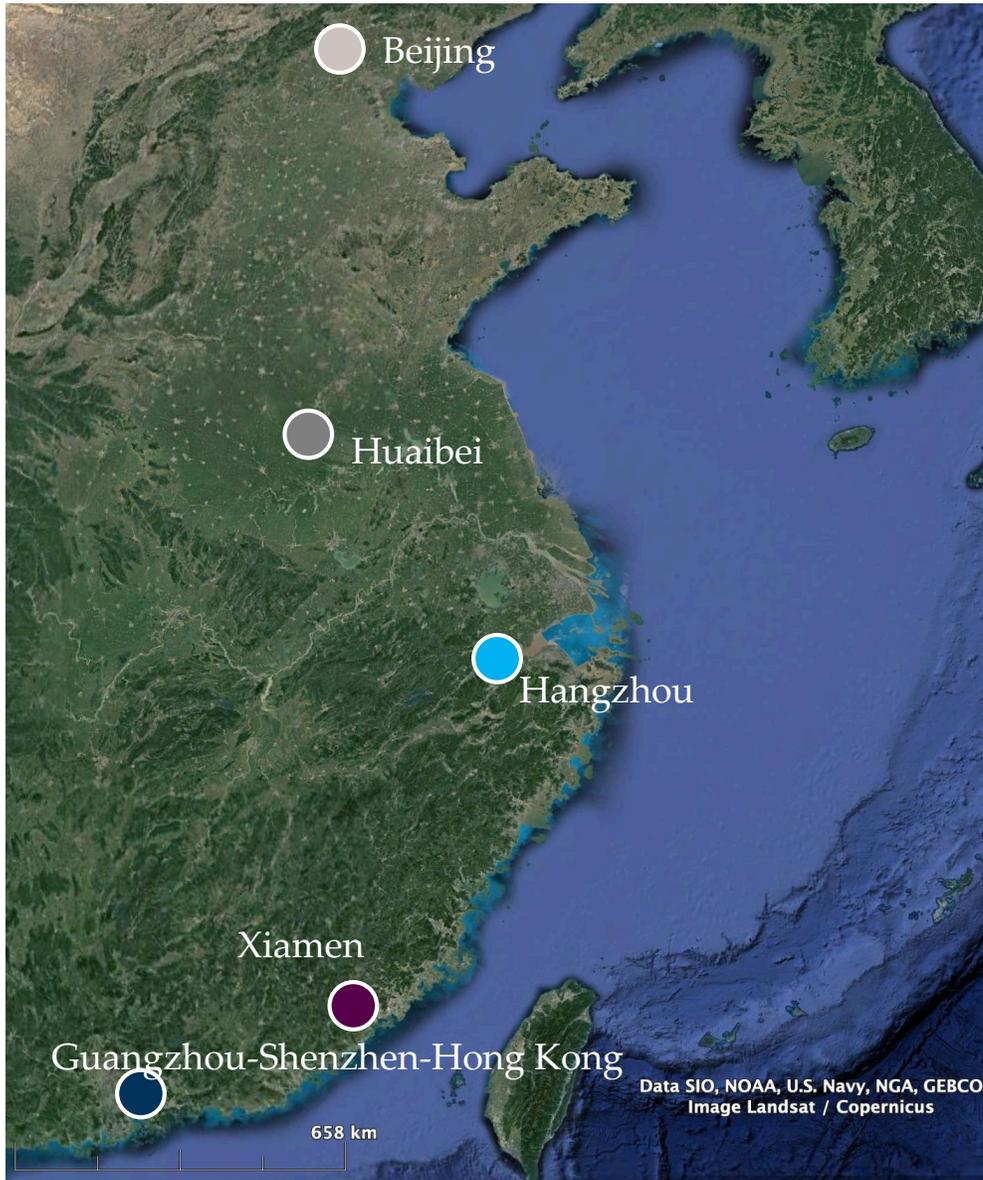

We will analyse & develop the potential of UF-NBS for enhancing the resilience of cities facing major ecological, socio-economic, and human wellbeing challenges:

- Analyse current frameworks, public perceptions and demand towards UF-NBS (WP1)
- Evaluate impacts on urban societies, including aspects of socio-environmental justice and gender, cost-effectiveness and replicability for diverse contexts (WP2)
- Facilitate a collaborative learning process on UF-NBS, connecting practitioners, businesses, policymakers and scientists (WP3)
- Develop decision support tools and guidelines for cost-effectively expanding, governing and managing UF-NBS (WP4)
- Increase awareness on the benefits of UF-NBS and disseminate it among governments, businesses, civil society and academia (WP5)

Methods and activities

- Mapping how urban forests are used/managed as NBS
- Surveying societal perceptions and demands towards UF-NBS in Europe and China MENTION THAT THIS IS BIG DATA ON SOCIETAL PERCEPTIONS
- Analyzing the respective policy frameworks in Europe and China
- Comparative case study analysis in five pairing cities/city cluster between China & Europe
- Experiment with elements of citizen science, co-design and co-learning with citizens, stakeholders and decision makers in Europe and China
- Developing use-friendly UF-NBS tools (e.g. guidelines for target key users)
